

INVITATION

WHO Global Coordination Mechanism on the Prevention and Control of Non Communicable Diseases (WHO GCM/NCD)

WHO GCM/NCD

Please join our Virtual Global Discussion Forum to transform global recommendations into national policy, practice and action on NCDs 9 – 18th December 2015

This forum provides an opportunity for a strategic multi-stakeholder engagement and discussion on how we can translate recommendations emerging as an outcome of our recent WHO GCM/NCD Dialogue Meeting involving experts and a broad spectrum of partners from government sectors, donor, international, national and nongovernmental communities into policy, practice and action on NCDs at the country level.

We would like to invite multiple international, national and civil society stakeholders engaged in activities associated with the control and prevention of NCDs from around the world to share their knowledge, experience, successes and challenges in and across countries in order to add their voice and their opinion to

How to best mobilize, strengthen and focus international cooperation (human, financial, technical and knowledge-sharing) in supporting implementation of national NCD responses?

This Virtual Global Discussion Forum will be launched by Dr Bente Mikkelsen, WHO GCM/NCD, and Dr Richard Horton, Editor-in-Chief of The Lancet, as keynote speaker and expert advisor, joined by a team of Guest Expert Speakers, WHO GCM/NCD participants and partners.

All contributions will be acknowledged and the outcome of this Global Discussion Forum will be published and used to drive policy and practice at the country level

Please pass this invitation on to your colleagues and networks in and across countries

Please note the working language of this Discussion Forum is limited at this time to English, as we intend to expand to other languages at a later date. If you would like to respond to this discussion in your own language, please do so and we will use existing resources available within the Department to translate it.
